DOUGLAS

IN THIS 37TH ANNUAL GALA TRIBUTE, The Film Society of Lincoln Center is thrilled to recognize Michael Douglas, a man who has helped shape American cinema for over three decades. Douglas has proven himself to be a highly influential and respected force in the cinematic community. An award-winning producer and actor, his career not only demonstrates the talent and passion he has for his art; but his ability to choose projects that reflect changing trends and public concerns. He has shown an impressive awareness and interest in the world around us, and in film's capacity to shape that world. Please join us in celebrating the work of this exceptional member of the film community.
